

MEET THE CONTRIBUTORS

10 YONSEI JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Paul Antonopoulos

Research Fellow at Center for Syncretic Studies

paul.antonopoulos@hotmail.com

Paul Antonopoulos is the Director of the Center for Research on Multipolarity and is a Research Fellow at the Center for Syncretic Studies. His main research interests are on the international relations and political economy of the Middle East and Latin America, as well as the topic of Multipolarity.

Emmanuel Ndhlovu

University of South Africa

matahemanu@yahoo.co.uk

Emmanuel Ndhlovu is an emerging scholar and a PhD candidate at the University of South Africa where he also obtained his Masters, as well as an Honors degree in Development Studies. He also holds an Honors degree in English from the University of Zimbabwe. His research interests concern African politics; migration; food security, livelihoods agrarian political economy; democratization; and capitalist development in Africa.

Mary Vanlalthanpui

Research Fellow at the Asiatic Society

mthanpui@gmail.com

Mary Vanlalthanpui is a research fellow currently working at the Asiatic Society, Kolkata, under the project of North East India Studies. She is a former PhD student at Calcutta University from the department of Women's Studies Research Centre and submitted her thesis in February of 2018. She is currently waiting for the Viva interview. Her areas of study include women in formal political institutions and the informal politics of the church, as well as insurgency and women's movements with a specific focus on Mizo Women. She has presented a number of papers at the national and international level and is a grant recipient of Zuban Sasakawa Peace Foundation for young researchers from North East India.

MEET THE CONTRIBUTORS 11

Dr. Michael T. Smith

Alfaisal University

kael.thomas.smith@gmail.com

Michael T. Smith is an Assistant Professor of English at Alfaisal University. He has taught within various interdisciplinary and cultural programs. His research interests include film studies and literature. He has published numerous academic articles, most recently in Symbolism and Cinematic. He has also published more than seventy poems in the past two years. His most recent conference presentations were at SCMLA, FIE, and END.

Jin Hee Lim

Seoul National University – Graduate School of International Studies

blackhayls@hotmail.com

Jin Hee Lim is a recent graduate from the Graduate School of International Studies, Seoul National University. She earned her master's degree in International Cooperation based around her research on opium production, governance, and peasant livelihoods in northern Myanmar. The author's supplementary research interests lie in critiques of neoliberal state-building agendas; non-western roots of intellectual thoughts and the nexus between humanitarianism; and peace and development. Lim's work experience includes ODA programs for women's empowerment in Latin America and inter-city cooperation for urban development in the Asia-Pacific.