

MEET THE CONTRIBUTORS

---

Anshita Arvind Shukla

anshita.shukla.98@gmail.com

Anshita Arvind Shukla is currently a Master in International Affairs candidate at the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy at the National University of Singapore. With a background in political science, her research interest lies primarily in understanding and analyzing the geopolitics of Asia Pacific through the lens of the Indian subcontinent.

Jonathan Lim

lim_jono@hotmail.com

Jonathan Lim is an Australian lawyer, cybersecurity analyst, and policy analyst. He holds a Bachelor of Arts and Juris Doctor from Monash University; a Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice and Master of Legal Practice from The Australian National University; a Graduate Certificate in Cybersecurity from the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology (RMIT); and a Graduate Certificate in Cybersecurity from Charles Sturt University. His areas of specialization span cyber affairs and critical technology, East Asian affairs, and international law.

Shakthi De Silva

shakthi721994@gmail.com

Shakthi De Silva is a visiting lecturer at the Bandaranaike Centre for International Studies and the Bandaranaike International Diplomatic Training Institute in Sri Lanka. His publications have previously appeared in the South Asian Survey (SAGE Journals), Journal of the Indian Ocean Region (Taylor and Francis), and in The Diplomat and East Asia Forum. He is currently pursuing his postgraduate studies at the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy at the National University of Singapore.

Jun Kyu Baek

junkyub@gmail.com

Jun Kyu Baek is a Master of Global Affairs and Policy student at the Yonsei Graduate School of International Studies. His academic interests include security studies, East Asian geopolitics and strategy, and international relations theory.

Carlos Miguel Oñate

miggyonate@gmail.com / csonate@up.edu.ph

Carlos Miguel Oñate is finishing his Bachelor of Public Administration at the National College of Public Administration and Governance at the University of the Philippines. Recently, he received the grand prize in the 2021 Korea Essay Contest organized by the UP Korea Research Center and first prize in the essay competition, “Developments in Afghanistan” organized by the Association of Asia Scholars (AAS). He is also one of the winners of the KOICA COVID-19 essay contest and the essay writing contest organized by the Chinese Embassy Manila on poverty alleviation in China.

Adrineh Gregorian

adrineh.gregorian@cgu.edu

Adrineh Gregorian is a Ph.D. candidate in Cultural Studies at Claremont Graduate University. She has degrees from UCLA and The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University. For over 17 years, Adrineh Gregorian has been working on projects throughout Armenia, Turkey, and the Caucasus region. She oversees international and local human rights campaigns on issues ranging from women’s leadership, health education, and disability rights, combining media tools, like documentary films, to promote social change and policy reformation. Her documentary films have reached over 50 countries and participated in 28 festivals across the globe including Short Film Corner at the Cannes Film Festival for “Bavakan” in 2013, and the Doc Film Corner at Cannes for “Back to Gurun” in 2015.

Chen Yue & Bai Yifan

chenyue@yonsei.ac.kr

Chen Yue is a Ph.D. candidate in the Department of English Language and Literature at Yonsei University. Her current research interests lie in Chinese-English translation, Corpus studies, science fiction, and film studies. As of 2022 she is working on the study of translation aesthetics in the English translation of Chinese classics, as well as the corpus study of the language of science fiction from a gender perspective.

Bai Yifan is a graduate student in the Foreign Language School at the Hebei University of Technology, majoring in English Translation. Her research interests include translation theory and practice, corpus research, and science fiction.

Song Mi Lee

dlthdal@gmail.com

Song Mi (Michelle) Lee is an independent scholar who recently received a master's degree in English from Claremont Graduate University in 2020. Michelle's interest primarily resides in Asian/Asian American literature, critical theory, and animal studies.

Hannah Kim

hannahkim885@gmail.com

Hannah Kim is a graduate student at Yonsei Graduate School of International Studies receiving her master's degree in Korean Studies. Her research interests include gender studies, literature, and translation.

Marie Brunet

mannebrunet@orange.fr

Marie Brunet is a Korean Studies graduate student at the Yonsei Graduate School of International Studies. Originally from France, she has been living in South Korea for five years and graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Comparative Literature and Culture from Yonsei University Underwood International College (UIC). Her research interests encompass 1970s Korean literature and culture, as well as contemporary cultural content translation and linguistics. She is also the co-author of "An Analytical Research on Broadening Literary Exchange between France and Korea," available on the Underwood International College website.